Career Forward Guide

Based on the results of your Birkman assessment, you have been assigned a particular color in each of the five areas included in the Career Forward Guide. Each color is associated with the attributes and behaviors of a particular personality type. Typically, you will have more than one color in your report, each representing a different aspect of your unique personality.

● DOER

RED

Ray is a doer. He makes quick decisions and organizes others to get results. Ray is very direct and action-oriented, giving his full attention to the task at hand. He enjoys building, organizing, working with his hands, solving practical problems, and producing an end product he can see and feel. He's objective, competitive, and commanding. If you want something done quickly, Ray's your man.

● COMMUNICATOR

GREEN

Greta is a born salesperson with a strong desire to communicate directly and work with people. Every time you see her she is selling, persuading, promoting, motivating, counseling, teaching, or working with people in some way to get results. When she believes in a product, service, or idea, she can sell it. If you want to win friends and influence people, Greta is the right person for the job.

● ANALYZER

YELLOW

Yelena loves working with processes, details, definitions, and rules. She's happiest doing detailed calculations, scheduling, record-keeping, and establishing systematic procedures. Yelena is an excellent person to consult on financial matters because she is always cautious and thorough in her analysis. She is task oriented and prefers indirect communication (e.g. forms, rules and regulations, etc.)

● THINKER

BLUE

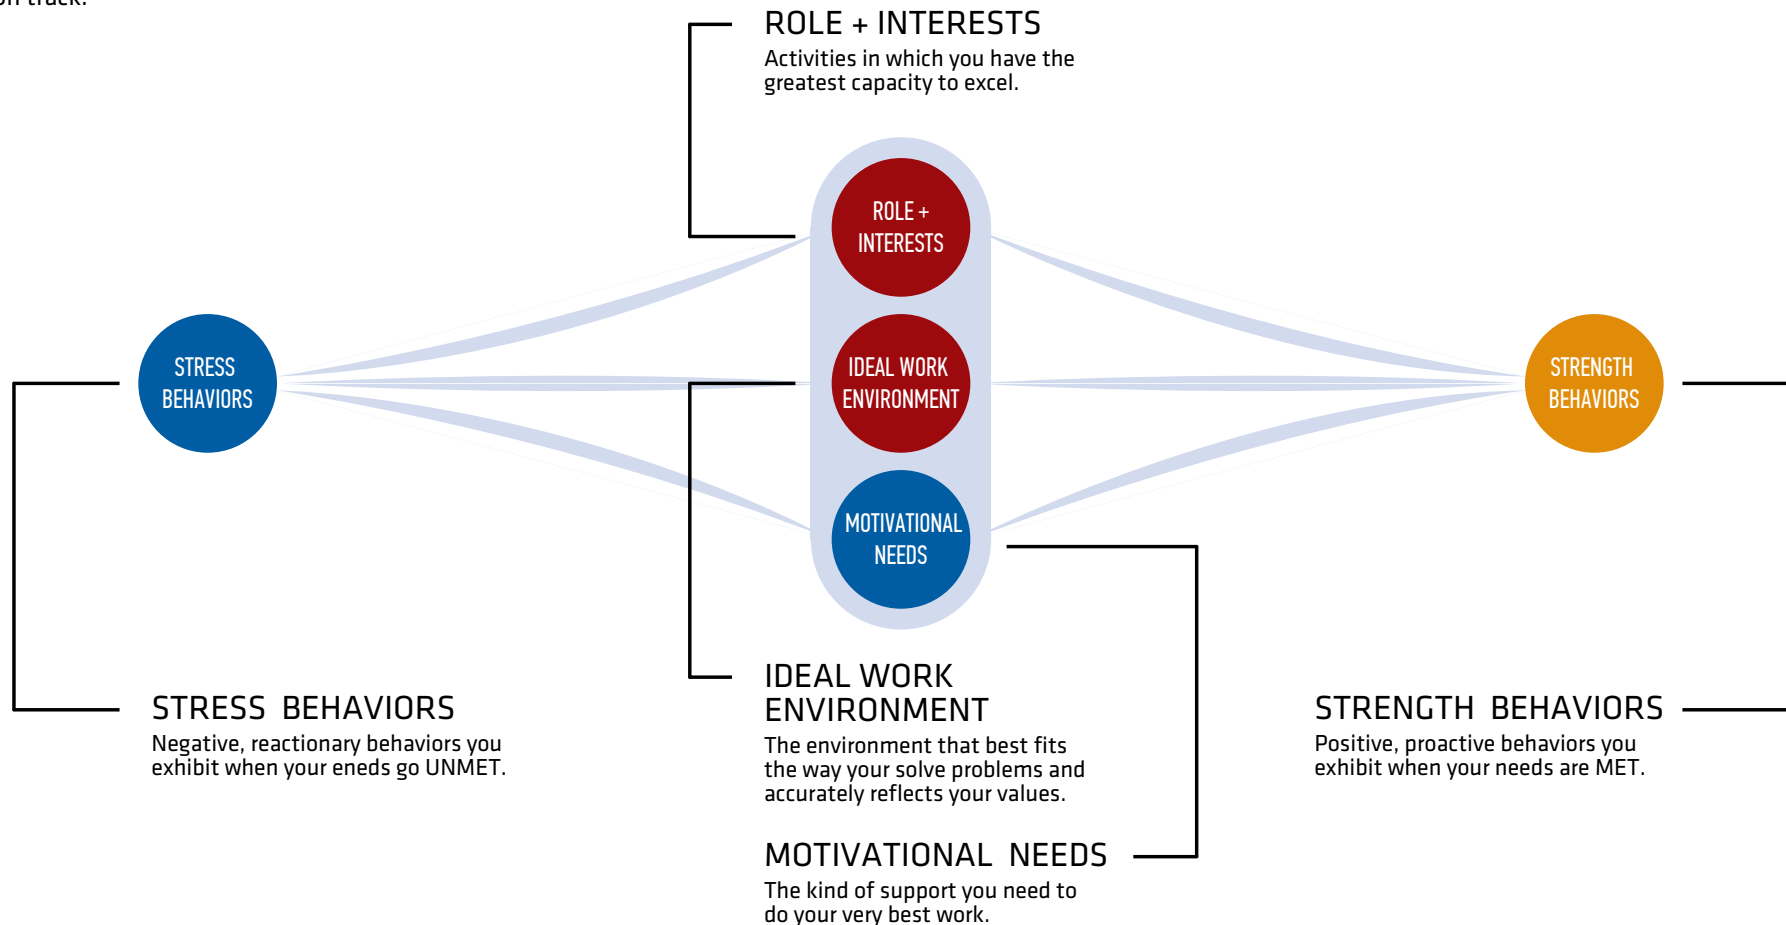

Barry is the best idea person around. He is creative, innovative, and an excellent long-range planner. He enjoys abstract ideas and finding new ways to solve problems. Barry thrives when generating ideas and coming up with the most viable solutions for the problem at hand. He is innovative and introspective, yet may need to be around other creative people to trigger the spark.

Each color is associated with the attributes and behaviors of a particular personality type.

IDEAL WORK ENVIRONMENT: DOER

The environment that best fits the way you solve problems and accurately reflects your values.

Target work environments that:

- Stress practical solutions
- Provide clear goals and decisions
- Value fast action and team collaboration
- Promote assertive leadership

When evaluating a potential workplace, ask:

- Does the department/company have short-term, tactical plans?
- Is open, clear, objective communication valued?
- Does the department/company operate quickly and decisively?
- Does the environment allow for ""hands-on"" work with tangible outcomes?

The large RED circle details your ideal work environment.

MOTIVATIONAL NEEDS: THINKER

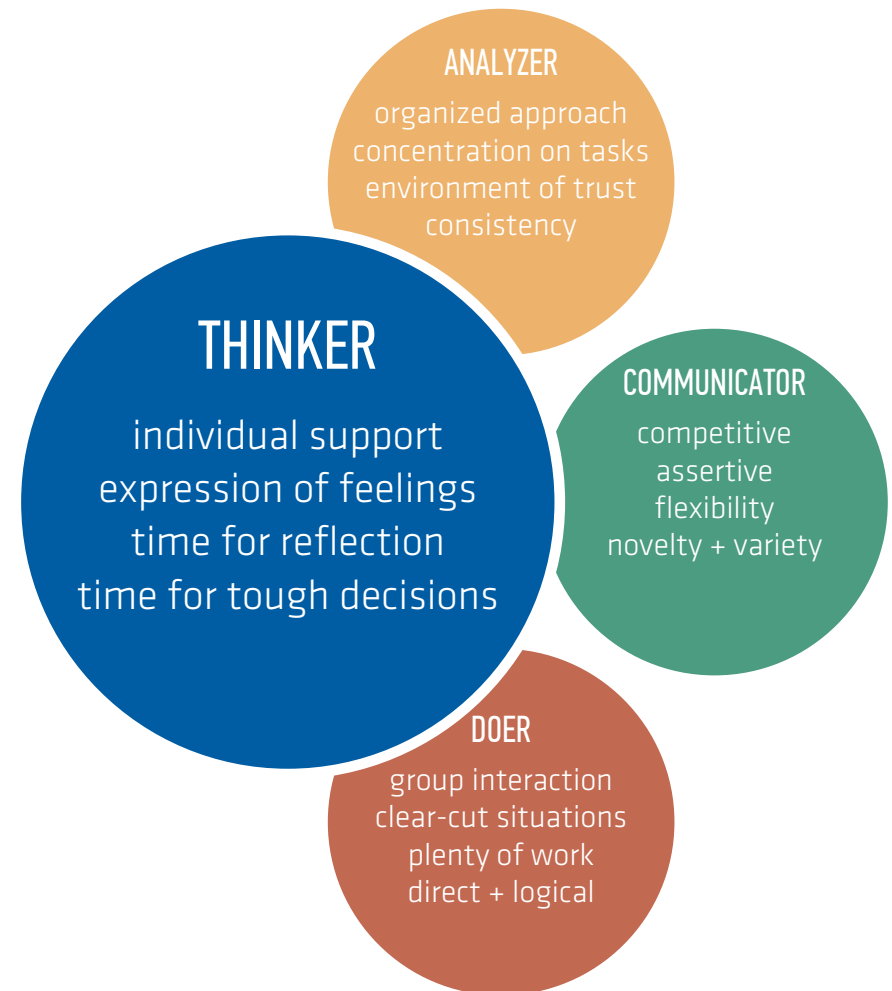

The kind of support you need to do your very best work.

Target opportunities that also offer:

- Individual reassurance
- Direction by suggestion
- Stimulating activities
- Freedom to create own schedule

To determine if a career opportunity is a good fit, ask:

- Are there opportunities to work independently?
- How decisions are typically made within the organization?
- What is the communication style within the organization?
- How much interaction will I have with my direct manager?
- What is my direct manager's leadership style?

The large BLUE circle details the motivational support you need from others and your environment.
